DON'T BE TOO DISCOURAGED

A friend said to George Muller of Bristol, "I suppose through all these long years in your work for God, you have met with much to discourage you?"

"I have met with many discouragements," he answered; "but my hope and confidence has been in God. On the word of Jehovah's promise my soul has rested. Sixty-two years ago I preached a poor, dry, barren sermon, with no comfort to myself and, as I imagined, with no comfort to others. But a long time afterwards I heard of nineteen distinct cases of blessing that had come through that sermon."

"The husbandman hath long patience" (James 5:7). "In due season we shall reap" (Gal. 6:9).
